Victor and Vivian are at a wedding reception. Victor doesn't know many of the guests.

Victor: Do you know the guy who's giving the speech? He's hilarious.

Vivian: That's Marco, the groom's brother. He's the one who introduced them.

Victor: Oh, that's sweet. And the woman in the green dress?

Vivian: She owns the café where they had their first date.

Victor: Cute! Is she the one who made this amazing cake?

Vivian: No, the cake is from a bakery that my aunt runs.

Victor: Your family's everywhere! And the man who's dancing on the table?

Vivian: Oh no, that's my dad. Pretend you didn't see that!

Study Notes

He's hilarious.
Anh ấy hài hước cực kỳ.
"hilarious" /hɪˈleriəs/ mạnh hơn "funny" nhiều: buồn cười đến mức cười mãi không thôi.
Cách nói tương đương: He's so funny.

Pretend you didn't see that!
Coi như bạn chưa thấy gì nhé!
Câu nói đùa khi người thân của mình làm điều gì đó xấu hổ trước mặt người khác.
Cách nói tương đương: You didn't see anything, OK?

Speak Like a Native track 9

1. He's the one who introduced them.
linking: "who‿introduced"
change: "introduced them" (mất âm t)
strong: "one", "introduced"
"who introduced" nối liền nhờ âm /w/ chen vào: "hu-win-trơ-đust". Đuôi -ed đọc /t/ nhưng gần như mất trước "them": "in-trơ-đus-đơm".

2. She owns the café where they had their first date.
change: "first date" (mất âm t)
weak: "the", "their"
strong: "owns", "café"
Âm /t/ của "first" mất vì kẹp giữa /s/ và /d/: "fơs-đêit". "café" nhấn âm cuối: /kæˈfeɪ/ "ke-FÊI".

3. Pretend you didn't see that!
change: "Pretend‿you", "didn't see"
strong: "Pretend", "didn't see"
"Pretend you" nối thành "pri-ten-jơ" (d + y → j), giống "did you" → "đi-jơ". Âm /t/ của "didn't" gần như mất trước "see": "đi-đần-si".

- "who, that, where" trong mệnh đề quan hệ đọc nhẹ và nối liền với từ đứng trước.
- "that" làm đại từ quan hệ đọc nhẹ /ðət/; "that" chỉ trỏ (that guy) mới đọc mạnh /ðæt/.
- Không ngắt giọng trước mệnh đề quan hệ: "a bakery that my aunt runs" đọc như một cụm.
- "who's" (= who is) đọc /huːz/, giống hệt "whose": the guy who's giving the speech.

Grammar Focus

Mệnh đề quan hệ: who / which / that Đứng ngay sau danh từ để nói rõ người, vật nào. Người: who / that; vật: which / that. Không có dấu phẩy. Người Mỹ dùng "that" nhiều hơn "which".

The man who lives next door is a pilot.
Where's the charger that was on my desk?
I want a phone which has a good camera.

where và lược bỏ that where + mệnh đề (chủ ngữ + động từ) dùng cho nơi chốn. Khi who / that / which là tân ngữ, có thể bỏ: the cake (that) she made.

This is the hospital where I was born.
Is there a shop where I can buy stamps?
The dress (that) she's wearing is gorgeous.
