Conversation track 15, 17, 18

Ian: Wow, these walls are huge! How old is this place?

Giang: It's the Imperial City, which was built over two hundred years ago.

Ian: Amazing. And the emperors actually lived here?

Giang: Yes. That hall over there, where they were crowned, is my favorite part.

Ian: Beautiful. So, where to next?

Giang: Dong Ba Market. My aunt, whose stall sells conical hats, will give you a good price.

Ian: Perfect! Can we grab a bite there too? I'm starving.

Giang: Sure. Let's get bun bo, which is way spicier than pho. Hope you can handle the heat!

Study Notes

So, where to next?
Tiếp theo mình đi đâu đây?
Câu hỏi rút gọn của "Where are we going next?", rất hay dùng khi đi chơi, tham quan.
Cách nói tương đương: What's next?

Hope you can handle the heat!
Mong là bạn ăn cay được nhé!
Văn nói hay bỏ chủ ngữ "I" trước "hope". "the heat" ở đây là độ cay của ớt, không phải trời nóng.
Cách nói tương đương: I hope you like spicy food!

Speak Like a Native track 16

1. It's the Imperial City, which was built over two hundred years ago.
linking: "years_ago"
weak: "was"
strong: "Imperial City", "two hundred"
Ngắt nhẹ ở dấu phẩy trước "which": phần sau chỉ là thông tin thêm. "was" đọc nhẹ /wəz/; "years ago" nối thành "yiơr-zơ-gâu".

2. That hall over there, where they were crowned, is my favorite part.
weak: "they were"
strong: "hall", "favorite part"
Phần giữa hai dấu phẩy đọc nhanh và thấp giọng hơn, như lời chú thích. "favorite" thường đọc gọn hai âm tiết: "fây-vrịt".

3. My aunt, whose stall sells conical hats, will give you a good price.
change: "good price" (d → b) strong: "aunt", "conical hats"
Giọng Mỹ đọc "aunt" giống "ant" /ænt/; "whose" đọc giống "who's". Âm /d/ của "good" biến thành /b/ trước /p/: "gúb-prais".

• Mệnh đề có dấu phẩy: ngắt nhẹ trước và sau, đọc phần chú thích thấp giọng hơn.
• "which" đọc giống "witch"; "whose" đọc giống "who's" /huːz/.
• Âm /d/, /t/, /n/ cuối từ dễ biến thành /b/, /p/, /m/ khi đứng trước /b/, /p/, /m/: good price → "gúb-prais".
• Khi giới thiệu địa danh, nhấn vào tên riêng và con số: the IMPERIAL CITY, TWO HUNDRED years.

Grammar Focus

Mệnh đề quan hệ không xác định: dấu phẩy + which / who

Thêm thông tin phụ về người hoặc vật đã rõ là ai, cái gì. Luôn có dấu phẩy, bỏ đi câu vẫn đủ nghĩa; không dùng "that" thay cho which / who.

My brother, who lives in Da Lat, is a chef.
Ha Long Bay, which I visited last year, is stunning.

whose / where trong mệnh đề quan hệ

"whose + danh từ" = của người hoặc vật đó; "where" = ở nơi đó (thay cho in which / at which).

My neighbor, whose dog barks all night, is moving.
We stayed in Hoi An, where my parents first met.
That's the café where I work.
